

Renewal and hope in the International Meetings

Concluding the Meetings of the Conaces held this year, the General Representation took its word of strength and union to the international Regions, meeting with the Cadre of Mestres of the 1st Region of North America in Santa Fé, in the United States and with the Direction of the 1st Region of Europe and Oceania, in Madrid, Spain.

Paulo Afonso Amato Condé, the General Representative Mestre, said that these meetings at the international level aimed, above all, at strengthening our leaders, who were able to better know the Works of the General Directorate and of the General Representation who are ready to assist and support the needs of these Regions.

Mestre José Carlos Garcia, Assistant General Mestre responsible for the supervision of the works at the international level, considered the presence of the members of the General Representation to be important. "They were very productive Meetings, aligning the General Representation and the international Regions more, in a climate of harmony and peace."

Friendship and Fortification

The Meeting of the General Representation and the General Directorate with the Conace of the 1st Region of North America (including 7 Núcleos and 1 DAV in the United States and 1 DAV in Canada) was held at Núcleo Santa Fé, on October 27th. It was an opportunity where the accounting records, the projects in development and the guidelines of the General Directorate were presented to the Conace of the Region and the members of the Direction.

After the administrative meeting, the General Representative Mestre directed a Session for the Cadre of Mestres of the Region (41 Mestres present), bringing orientations and a message of friendship and union; reinforcing the administrative and doctrinal line that has characterized the works developed by the General Representation. The following day, an Instructive Session was held with the presence of 145 brothers and sisters.

For Fabio Fortunato, the Central Mestre of the 1st Region of North America, it was a Meeting that provided course correction and pointing to the correct and safe route. "Light and force to lead us higher, walking within the words of the General Representative Mestre and the Mestres of the General Representation."
